"Nose: thick, decadent and fruity with a backbone of oak spices; doughy with dried apricots, honeydew melon and bright citrus; marzipan and buttery toasted oak make way for cinnamon, fennel and clove.

Palate: bright, fruity and decadent with a firm but yielding backbone of spice; licorice root and cinnamon sticks; still doughy, almond paste croissants and chocolate-orange marzipan; very fruity, green mangoes, dried apricot and melons galore; some jammy strawberry and quince paste; warming, coating and rich.

Finish: long and coating with decadent buttery oak tones, exotic fruits and crisp spices." - Kensington Wine Market
