LOT 20 - The Deveron 18 Year Old

Estimate $ 120-180

Description

The Deveron 18 Year Old

Distillery Bottled

750 ml / Highland Single Malt / 40% ABV

"New to Canada in late 2015, this 18 year old is from the Macduff Distillery, bottled under the name The Deveron. The latter is a reference to the river which empties into the North Sea near the distillery. Founded in 1962 by three local businessmen, George Crawford, Marty Dyke and Brodie Hepburn, the distillery is today owned by John Dewar & Son, a subsidiary of Bacardi.

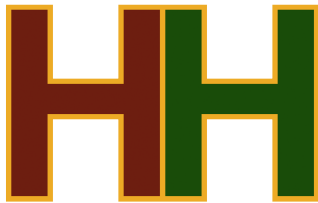

Nose: still floral, malty and slightly metallic, like the 12 year, but with greater depth of oak; crushed almonds and peanuts; freshly picked berries and more white fruits. 40%

Palate: creamy, honeyed and toasting with building Demerara sugars and spice; there is a big hit of cooked apple with brown sugar and traces of the coppery note found on the nose; jammy berry fruits and poached pear emerge with a little citrus.

Finish: medium, drying and malty with spices and white fruits." - Kensington Wine Market
