Château Bourgneuf Pomerol 1995 (5 bottles)

Bordeaux, Pomerol

750 ml / France / 12.5% ABV

WA 89 | WS 92

"A sleeper of the vintage, Bourgneuf's 1995 may be the finest wine I have tasted from this estate. The color is an opaque purple, and the wine offers a closed but promising nose of black cherries, raspberries, and coffee-tinged fruit. Packed and stacked, as they say in the vernacular, this medium to full-bodied, powerful, mouthfilling Pomerol is big, bold, and boisterous. If additional complexity develops in this excellent, decadently rich wine, it will merit an outstanding rating."

Château Bourgneuf Pomerol 1996

Bordeaux, Pomerol

750 ml / France / 12.5% ABV

WA 87

"This estate has been producing fine robust, concentrated wines. While they may ultimately lack complexity, the exuberant display of density, muscle, and richness is impressive. The 1996 has turned out well, although it is somewhat monolithic."

The color is saturated ruby/plum. The wine has an earthy, black cherry, licorice, and dried herb-scented nose, medium to full body, and muscular, concentrated flavors with moderately high tannin.”
April 1999 (RP – Wine Advocate)
